

Five Car Crash Kills Two Near Here Thursday

Funeral service for Eddie Clay Perry, 17-year-old Hereford boy killed Thursday night about six miles north of Canyon, was held Sunday at the Avenue Baptist Church in Hereford. Rev. H. V. Fields officiated at the services which were conducted at 2:30 p. m.

Young Perry was the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Perry who came to Hereford in 1943 from Lawton, Oklahoma. Survivors include both parents, three brothers, Leon, Bobby, and Euel, and two sisters, Helen Barrow and Patricia Perry.

The five car accident took the lives of two young people. The other victim was Mona Gray, 14-year-old girl from Ranger. Funeral services for Miss Gray were to be conducted in Ranger. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Gray.

Also injured in the accident was Cecil Messer, 21-year-old Hereford youth. Early this week Messer was still in the hospital here and in critical condition.

Messer was driving one of the cars and at the time of the wreck he was in the center lane passing a car. Another car, reportedly driven by G. W. Bender, pulled out into the center lane and the two met head on. After striking the two cars veered off, each hitting another car. The fifth car in the mishap was hit by a flying wheel.

Others injured in the wreck were Mrs. W. A. Dobbins and Richard Curtis of Hereford.

Hold F. R. Moore Funeral Tuesday

Funeral services for Floyd Regan Moore were held Tuesday morning at 10:30 in the Methodist Church. Moore was killed in an auto collision about seven miles south of Canyon. He died about 6:30 p. m. Sunday.

Moore is survived by his wife, Florene; one daughter, Ann; and a son, Larry.

Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of Griggs-Warren Funeral Home. Officiating at the funeral were Rev. R. H. Campbell of Olton and Rev. L. L. Hill of Canyon.

Pall bearers were Hol Ed Toles, Guy Allen, Bailey McCormick, Cecil Simms, Vernon Harmon, Johnny Robinson, Bob Harding, and John Frank Toles.

Honorary pall bearers were Elvin McDowell, Grady Persons, Lee Jennings, Frank Walters, S. L. Robinson, Glenn Dowlen, Roy Foster, T. V. Crouse, J. J. Walker, Oscar McDonald, D. L. Allison, and Woodson Terrill.

New Dietitian Is Named For W. T.

A new dietitian has been appointed at West Texas State College to succeed Miss Betty V. Johnson. President James P. Cornette has announced.

She is Miss Helen Ruth Skinner, who for the past five years has been food service manager at St. Joseph's College for Men at Collegeville, Ind. Miss Johnson has resigned to accept a position at Southwestern Louisiana Institute as associate professor of home economics.

Miss Skinner was foods production manager, dietitian, and instructor at Indiana University from 1942 until 1948, when she accepted the position at St. Joseph's College. She served her dietetic internship also at Indiana University. Miss Skinner previously had been dietitian at Indianapolis and Marion County Girl Scout Camp and at the Indiana Soldier's and Sailor's Childrens Home.

The new dietitian is a graduate of Purdue University, holding her Bachelor of Science degree from the university's School of Home Economics, and Teachers College, Columbia University, where she earned her master's degree in the department of institutional management. She is an active member of the American Dietetic Association.

Churches Compete In Softball Games

Tomorrow evening at 6:30 on the playground north of the Calvary Baptist Church there will be a ball game between the men of the Calvary Baptist Church and the First Baptist Church.

Details of the game were worked out early this week. The game comes at a good time for many of the members of the First Baptist Church. Two Sunday School classes of the First Baptist Church are to play a game of softball sometime next week.

This game will be between the James E. Miller Sunday School class and the W. T. McGregor Sunday School class. Details for the game are to be worked out late this week.

Fifty-Eighth Year

Water Must Be Conserved To Carry Canyon Through Danger Period

Mayor A. L. Walsh has issued a statement to the citizens of Canyon, urging that all water be conserved. There must be no waste; no irrigation between 8 o'clock at night and 5 o'clock in the morning; and all irrigation must be stopped when there is a fire.

The present heat wave and accompanying drouth makes it necessary that all water possible be conserved.

Water consumption in Canyon is running at a rate 20% above last year. The city anticipated the increase and upon recommendation of the city engineer definite plans were made for improving the water supply. During the fall and winter these plans were carried out by increasing the output of water from the existing wells. The wells were capable, this spring, of producing 2,088,000 gallons per day. During the past months the extended drouth has caused the underground water level to lower rapidly and due to this the wells are now producing only 1,540,000 gallons per day. The peak water consumption this year was 1,696,000 gallons recorded on June 6th.

It is now apparent the falling water supply available from present wells calls for development of more water sources. This will be undertaken. But our present problem is to conserve what we NOW have. We are therefore suggesting and requesting the cooperation of the entire community to conserve water and water reserves.

There is no critical water shortage, and with careful use we should have none if the city wells hold up to present levels. But the supply is not sufficient to use without care. Your cooperation will help all of us to have water for reasonable needs.

Geo. Nance To Sell Registered Herd in Sept.

George and Lucille Nance have set September 23, 24, 25 and 26 as the dates for the complete dispersal of their fine herd of Registered Hereford cattle. The sale will be at the sales barn on their ranch east of Canyon.

Mrs. Nance said the other day that the thoughts of selling out was like giving up a member of their family.

Two factors are involved in the sale: The drouth and the health of Mr. Nance. For three years now the Nances have battled the severe drouth. This year, the worst crop year that the Panhandle has ever witnessed, they have had to give up hope of holding onto their large herd of fine registered Herefords. They are going to sell every hoof on their ranch, and when conditions improve, and the health of George is better, they will start to rebuild the herd.

"After all, the health of George is far more important than all of the fine Herefords which we own on the ranch," stated Mrs. Nance.

Attend Civil Defense Workshop in Austin

Mrs. James P. Cornette, District president of P-TA, and Mrs. Crews Henry, District Civil Defense chairman of P-TA, attended the Civil Defense Workshop in Austin June 8-12.

Consultants for the workshop included Aubrey Elliott from the Hogg Foundation, M. K. Dixon from the Texas Department of Public Safety, and Col. Mattie Treadwell, four state regional coordinator of women in Civil Defense.

All consultants stressed the importance of civilians being organized and prepared to meet emergencies in everyday living as being as important or more so than in case of attack from a warring nation.

Both women say they received a great many ideas that could be developed to the benefit of our community and area.

Don Standley Is Home From School

Don Standley, assistant vice-president of the First National Bank, returned Sunday from two weeks of a bankers school held at the University of Louisiana. Don attended the school last year, and reports that this was better than the school conducted last year.

Lt. Col. Hud Prichard of Ft. Worth visited in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hud Prichard, Sr., during the week-end. He took home his children who had been visiting with their grandparents, the Prichards and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harter.

VFW Working On New Addition

Friday evening volunteer workers ran the foundation for the $2,000 addition to the local VFW Post clubhouse. The new addition is being built onto the north end of the present clubhouse. It will be a 20 foot extension going the full width of the present structure which is 40 feet wide.

Recently the club drilled a well to supply its own water. Sunday of last week volunteer workers got the pump installed on the well and last week they got the pipe laid to carry the water to the clubhouse. One reason the work has progressed so slowly is there haven't been enough volunteer workers. Club members are doing the work in order to keep the cost down to a minimum. Getting the well into operation was one of the first requirements before construction of the building addition could be started.

The new addition to the present building will be a kitchen, lounges for men and women, club room, and a storage room. Although the new addition is not so large as the present building the cost of construction will be about the same because of the kitchen cabinet and other built-in fixtures.

Canyon Resident On Duty in Korea

Pvt. Merle W. Pitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Pitt, is in Korea for duty with the 5th Regimental Combat Team. His wife, Anita Faye Pitt, is making her home in Canyon while he is away.

Pvt. Pitt, a cannoneer, is Battery C of the team's 555th Field Artillery Battalion, entered the Army in October, 1952, and was last stationed at Camp Chaffee, Ark.

The 5th Regimental Combat Team has fought with every division in Korea since arriving in the combat zone more than two years ago.

No Evidence in City Water Says Health Officer

Jack Wyatt, chemist of the Amarillo Health Department, has reported to Dr. Dudley Moore on the water supply of Canyon and surrounding areas.

There is no trace of contamination in the water supply, stated Mr. Wyatt following his tests which were made last week.

Wyatt called upon the state government for additional tests than those which he had made, and likewise these were cleared of any infectious germs.

It is reported that both of the victims of typhoid who have been under treatment for the past week have recently returned from trips, and that the typhoid germs were probably picked up during their trips.

Annual City Club Picnic Is Sunday

Annual picnic of the Canyon City Club is scheduled for Sunday noon under the trees at the club grounds. At the last meeting of the stockholders it was voted that each family would bring a basket lunch to provide food to be spread under the trees.

Stockholders voted for each family to bring its basket lunch in order to keep the club's expenses down as much as possible. With each family providing a basket lunch the club can save money to pay for the new pump and other improvements made recently.

The money saved will also help the club pay for the addition to the club house which is now complete except for the painting and setting of the plumbing fixtures. The new pump is now in operation.

Dan Sanders, club secretary, is mailing out letters to all the members concerning the picnic and the improvements which have been made.

Wooten and Donnell Eye 3 Dimension Film

W. J. Wooten and Charlie Donnell were expected to return to Canyon today from a three day trip in Dallas. The two theater men were in Dallas to view the screening of a three dimensional film. They left Canyon Monday and expected to be back sometime Wednesday evening.

The showing of the three dimensional film was a special screening for showmen all over Texas. The special showing was given Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy C. Smith and son, Montie, of Stuart, Fla., visited friends in Canyon last week. Mrs. Smith will be remembered as Jean Smith.

No Dust Bowl Will Follow Long Drouth in the Panhandle Area

Raymond Holbrook writes the following for the Star-Telegram regarding conditions in the Panhandle:

Dust blows again in the Panhandle and South Plains of Texas—but it can't turn them into another "dust bowl."

Weather conditions are right for one. Rains have been little more than sprinkles. Wind and sun burn the wheat fields and scorch the bleak ranges.

But great changes have been wrought in two decades—two decades in which the region has matured economically, shifted its forces and developed its resources to withstand the adversities nature forces upon it.

The winds and the drouth that seared the Panhandle-Plains in the early '30s struck at a country whose principal livelihood was agriculture and livestock raising—vulnerable "dry land" operations. The blow that was almost a knock-out fell during the worst economic depression of modern times.

No Depression Today Today there is no depression. And what is perhaps more important, it is a changed and changing land that the wind blows over today compared with the Panhandle-Plains of the '30s.

The land, the water and the people—these are the prime ingredients of any country. In the '30s, there was little water; what land wasn't blowing was dry and barren; and the people had to fight it out alone. "Guts" were often their only weapons in those dark days.

The plainsman still has his "guts" but now he also has strong weapons—he has shaped the

33 Towns Send Students To WT

By the end of last week 111 students from 33 towns and a three state area had enrolled in elementary and high school courses for the summer at West Texas Elementary School. The figures were released by Rex Reeves, principal of the school. There were some students who had not completed enrollment last week. If these students get enrolled it will increase the enrollment figure by three or four.

Enrollment for the elementary level was complete by noon Friday and the number of students enrolled in these classes totaled 71. On the high school level a total of 40 students were enrolled and several others had started enrollment, but had not completed it.

States represented by the enrollment were Texas, New Mexico, and Arkansas. The towns are Portales, Nara Visa, and Carlsbad, N. M., Lefors, Canyon, Vega, Phillips, Memphis, Dalhart, Hereford, Alareed, Estelline, Seagraves, Friona, Seymour, Amarillo, Childress, Canadian, Abilene, Stinnett, Plainview, Flomott, Quitaque, Grapevine, Borger, Goodnight, Tulia, Kress, Spearman, Stephenville, McLean, and Harrison, Arkansas.

Pioneer Newspaper Man Is Dead

Walter E. Thatcher, 56, died Wednesday morning of a heart attack in Lubbock where he has engaged in printing for the past six years.

Walter will be remembered by many Canyon citizens as having been publisher of The Canyon News during World War I when Clyde W. Warwick was overseas.

This information was sent by Herb Miller, another Canyon News product. Herb learned the business here and has been employed on the daily newspaper of Lubbock for several years as a linotype operator.

GOODMANS ON TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Goodman left Canyon Friday morning to be gone until school opens in the fall. They will spend some time in and around Los Angeles, San Francisco, Sacramento, Portland, Ore., Seattle, Wash., then into Canada; down to Spokane, Wash., Yellowstone Park and Loveland, Colo. The News will follow them on their summer's trip.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Evaluating Tax Problem Falls To Commissioners As Time Runs Out

From all indications there will not be a board of "tax equalizers" hired this year by the Randall County Commissioners Court. This was brought out in a special session of the commissioners Thursday afternoon. Pat Baber, commissioner of Precinct 1, said there was not enough time to do the job right. No indication was made to show that the court will not hire tax equalizers except the statement by Mr. Baber regarding the time element. In order to be used by the tax assessor and collector this year the report would have to be completed before the first of 1954.

Bill Money, Randall County tax assessor and collector, met with the commissioners Wednesday. Money pointed out that the problem of evaluating taxable personal property was one of the minor problems of the court.

C. Y. Johnson, commissioner of Precinct 4, in South Amarillo, made the statement that the commissioners should evaluate land first then go on to other things. But this was not done. The first decision of the court was to set the evaluation of cars and trucks at 25% of the highest retail value, according to the National Used Car Redbook on cars and trucks.

The question came up as to the correct evaluation on cattle. Bill Money said that calves between six months and two years of age were evaluated at $15 per head for tax purposes. The evaluation of cattle over two years of age was set at $25 per head. A motion was made to reduce the evaluation of cattle from $25 per head to $20, but it failed to carry.

Nothing was done toward evaluating land or changing the present evaluation which is $5.60 per acre. During the meeting it was brought out that the farmer had been paying 50% of the evaluation of personal property while the people living in town have been paying only 25% of the evaluation of personal property in taxes. While this was being discussed it was brought out that farmers did not pay for improvements such as irrigation wells through higher tax evaluation.

One of the most appropriate statements of the meeting was made by Glenn Dowlen, commissioner of Precinct 3, who said "In my opinion taxes aren't right and probably never will be." The general consensus of opinion about taxes is that the only fair tax is that levied on the other fellow.

The court went to Amarillo Monday and spent the day carefully investigating property which had been rendered for 1953 taxes. According to Judge Roy Joe Stevens the court found some small residences which were paying taxes at too high a valuation, and some large residences on which the value was too low.

The court will be in session again Thursday with the view of reevaluating the property which they have inspected for tax values, both in Canyon and South Amarillo.

Officers Appoint Club Committees

Officers of the newly organized Young Women's Book Club met recently to appoint standing committees for the fiscal year of the Club; these committees will function during the coming year beginning with the first meeting in September.

The committees appointed with the chairmen, are as follows: Program committee, Mrs. Marvin Fite, chairman, with Betty Knighton, Shirley White, Dorothy Haynes, and Kate Gamble as members; membership committee with Mrs. Joyce Wooten, chairman, Katie Byrd, Joan Conner, and Mary Caballero, as assistants; remembrance committee, chairman, Mary Troth, and Ann Millar and Melva Craig as helpers.

The telephone committee consists of Cecile Bellah, chairman, and Bobbie Condon, Helen Taylor, Mary Jo Hale, and Mary Lee Taylor; entertainment committee, Billie Erwin, chairman, Bonnie Gist, Mary Elizabeth Black, Mattie Ruth Robinson, and Dorothy Byrd; courtesy committee, Sue Ann Davis, chairman, Martha Lange Seale, Norma Fonti, and Mrs. Mary Alice Bond, members.

HAD HEART ATTACK Bill Money, tax assessor and collector, was called to Crede, Colo., Monday by the illness of his son-in-law, Lonnie Woody of Dumas. Mr. and Mrs. Woody had gone to Colorado on a vacation when he was suddenly stricken with a heart attack. He had been in the Crede hospital since Friday.

Mr. Money was accompanied by a brother of Mr. Woody from Dumas.

SOCIAL PIONEERS TO MEET

Social Pioneers will meet with Mrs. H. C. Gentry in her home at 1011 Sixth Avenue Thursday, June 18, at 3:30 o'clock. This is a change in time because of weather conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Carter and family visited in Silverton Sunday with Mrs. Carter's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. Garvin.

See our east window for Father's Day gifts. Warwick's.

Injured Still on Critical List

Three victims of two separate car crashes were in Neblett Hospital yesterday and still in critical condition. One of the crash victims was from Hereford and the other two from Plainview.

The Hereford youth is Cecil Messer, 21, was injured in a head-on crash about six miles north of Canyon Thursday evening. In the crash two of Messer's companions, Eddie Clay Perry and Mona Gray, were killed.

The two Plainview crash victims are Mary Jane Garcia and her husband, Nasario Joe Garcia. The couple was injured in a head-on collision about eight miles south of Canyon Sunday evening. The husband suffered a broken arm, a broken jaw, and other injuries. Mrs. Garcia suffered facial and body cuts as well as other injuries.

The Garcias were in a pickup truck which met a car head-on that was driven by Floyd Regan Moore. Moore was killed in the crash.

Wheat Harvest Starts Wednesday

Pete Fischbacher brought the first load of 1953 Randall County wheat to Taylor-Evans Farm Store elevator last Wednesday. This first load of wheat to be harvested this year in Randall County came from the Bush Estate. The wheat test was 57 with a moisture content of 13.98%.

The second load of 1953 wheat came only two hours behind the first. This load was brought in by Noah Amerson. The test on it ran 54 with a moisture content of 15%.

Branding Iron Play Started For Week's Performance

The double emotional play of a man wrestling with his conscience and the reaction of a man's son to his father's wrongdoing build the tense, powerful drama, "All My Sons," being presented this week by the Palo Duro Players in the Branding Iron Theatre at West Texas State College.

Directed by William A. and Margaret Echols Moore, the three-act Arthur Miller play opens at 8:15 p. m. tonight and continues through Friday night. Admission is 75 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. The play began Tuesday night.

Canyon's Jerry Williams, who has performed with the Players for four years, after being something of a "call boy" the first year the Summer Theatre began, is cast in one of the production's leading roles. Williams portrays the son of Joe Keller, and in playing Chris Keller, he has received his first major serious role. A newcomer to the BIT Summer Theatre, Louise Zybach of Canadian, will play Ann Deever, daughter of a man in prison, serving for a wrong committed by Chris' father.

Cast in the major role of Joe Keller, a man who made a fortune during the war while his partner languished in jail, is Al Stevens, Artesia, N. M., teacher, who has performed in the Summer Theatre since its inception five years ago. Playing Kate Keller is another BIT veteran, Ruth Elaine Harmon, Floydada.

Other cast members are Lynn Teter, Darrouzett, as the bitter son of Keller's partner, George Deever; Jack Teague, Dimmitt, as Dr. Jim Bayliss; Barbara Gaitner, Amarillo, as Sue Bayliss; Carroll Killingsworth, Briscoe, as Frank Luby; Ann Jones, Friona, as Lydia Luby; and William A. Moore, Jr., as Bert.

All action for the drama falls within a 24-hour period, and scenes are in the Keller's back yard. The play will be presented in intimate theatre fashion, with the audience surrounding the players.

Mickle and Vorwald Win Drawing Prizes

Mrs. Ed Mickle was winner of the $100 first prize at the drawing Saturday. The first $25 prize went to Mrs. John Vorwald and the $25 consolation prize did not have a claimer.

Roland Black, chamber of commerce manager, said there would be no drawing Saturday. The next one will be held one week from this Saturday, June 27. At that drawing the first prize will be $100; second, $25, and third, $50. The third, or consolation, prize is a carry-over of the $25 prize of last Saturday which was not given plus the regular $25 consolation prize.

Jury Service Urged by Lawyers,
Who Reject Qualified Citizens

We would laugh, but have a cracked lip. Such exercise is terrible on a hot day, so we shall tell you the lowdown, and let you get a good laugh. The law profession is responsible for the laws which are on the statute books, both in Texas, and in Congress and in every state in the union. The lawyers have absolutely control of the law making machinery in Texas as witnessed by the fact that 78% of all members of the legislature are lawyers. Outsiders have no chance to win an election. Just let any kind of a lawyer announce for the legislature and he will defeat any well equipped and well qualified representative of any other profession.

Now don't become all incensed in this hot weather and say that we are talking through our old gray bonnet. We have seen the thing tried out in too many instances. The lawyer, regardless of his age or experience or lack of qualification, will defeat any other profession.

Get back to cases: We have been receiving long weekly articles from the Texas Bar Association. The latest blast is headed: "Jury Service Is Civic Duty."

We have been receiving these weekly articles for a year and have read them with a great deal of amazement. You know it is a terrible thing if lawyers advertise their wares in the newspapers. The lawyers are disbarred for such a thing. Yet it is perfectly legitimate for the Bar Association to thumb at the press, but dish out a lot of plain unadulterated bosh like this release.

We just ask the bar: Who is responsible for the injustice which goes on day in and day out in the courts of Texas? The Bar Association members!

Who is it that turns down highly respectable and qualified men for jury service in favor of some man who has little or no qualifications and not too many brains? No one but the lawyers!

Who is it that writes the laws of Texas; elects the lawmakers; select and elect the judges; rule the misunderstandings which creep into the every day sessions of our courts? The lawyers!

Frankly we do not blame any person for refusing to accept jury service.

We seldom hang around the court house while juries are being selected. We do not like to see the bullying which goes on as our friends and neighbors are abused by certain lawyers because they have a little more intelligence than some of their neighbors.

We are convinced that law enforcement will never be improved in Texas so long as youthful legislators are allowed to run the legislature and make the laws of the State.

No, we are not mad; just disgusted!

Peace in Korea? Well, We Shall See What We Shall See!

The fact that an armistice has been declared in Korea is no sign of peace. If the Reds want peace, they could have had it months ago.

On the other hand, if they do not want peace, there is nothing that the United States or Uncle Sam can do to enforce peace.

South Korea objects to the peace proposal and threatens to fight on. Those who are from that part of the small country say that the terms of the proposal are impossible.

While most of us will agree that the South Koreans will be wiped out if they insist in fighting the Reds, yet let it be remembered that this nation made a terrible mistake in allowing Korea to be divided; and that the nation should be united, regardless of our wishes.

Whatever the results may be, we have a heavy investment in that small, but worthless country, with the billions which we have spent in money, and the 133,000 men who have suffered death or permanent injuries for the sake of waging war against the Reds.

While we have been whipped in making peace, we should become well acquainted with this method of losing all our wars after the fighting has resulted in victory on the battlefields.

The Reds have lied to us at every turn of the road. No doubt they lie to us again.

And keep in mind the fact that after all the money and men we have poured into Korea, the fanatics are crying for us to "Go home." Nothing would suit the Americans better, if they did not know that the South Koreans would be easy prey to the Reds, once we were out of the way.

Times Have Changed From Days
When Stores Opened 14 Hours

How times have changed!

There was a time when clerks in mercantile establishments were slaves to their jobs, and had no leisure. Today 40 hours per week is the limit if eight persons are employed.

Bert Neelley, publisher of the Frona Star, printed an old clipping last week which gives the newly employed clerk a view of the old-timers, as follows:

"Speaking of the advance in merchandising, we have come across the following set of rules posted in a store back in 1880. Note:

"Store must be open from 6 a. m. to 9 p. m. the year round. Store must be swept; counters, shelves and showcases dusted; lamps trimmed, filled and chimneys cleaned; doors and windows opened; a pail of water and a bucket of coal brought in before breakfast. The employee who is in the habit of smoking Spanish cigars, being shaved at the barber's, going to dances and other places of amusement, will assuredly give his employer reason to be suspicious of his integrity and honesty. Each employee must pay not less than $5 a year to the church and attend Sunday School regularly. Men employees are given one evening a week for courting. After 14 hours in the store the leisure hours should be spent for the most part in reading.

The white man's civilization, which we think a great achievement, would probably be declared illegal by a majority vote, if all peoples, everywhere, were to vote.

Every farmer knows a slam-bang farm program battle is shaping up on Capitol Hill for 1954, with rigid versus flexible supports the major issue.

People get mixed up on equality; men and nations are not equal. But they should both have equal rights and opportunities, which they don't.

Republicans Fail To Uphold
Ideals of the President

Some organization has been making a serious study of the administration of President Eisenhower, and come up with the answer that the Democrats elected him; and that the Democrats in Congress were staying with him while the Republicans are turning him down!!!

Well, well, well. Of all things. Without spending one thin dime, and with only a few moments study of the election returns, we reached this decision months ago.

It cost this organization $50,000 to make this study and to determine that the President is above the members of his party and a bigger man than his party. Of course there are few Republicans who will admit this, and there are several Democrats in this vicinity who still think that the people made a tragic mistake in voting for Eisenhower.

We are reminded that there were a number of GOPers who insisted during the campaign that they hoped the party could not win with the General; and likewise there are many Democrats who thought that Stevenson could not possibly be defeated.

The fact that both former President Truman and Governor Stevenson maintain that the foreign policy is correct makes no difference with those few Democrats as well as to those numerous Republicans who are opposed to his policies.

Personally we are happy to have had a part in the election of President Eisenhower. Personally we are convinced that so far he has made no blunders. There are many months left in his administration and many pitfalls in his pathway. He can fall into one of these holes at any moment. But we will remember that there are plenty of GOPers digging those pitfalls; and there are plenty of Democrats who are fervently hoping that he will be able to avoid them.

Dulles May Be Replaced by
Thos. Dewey as Secretary State

We read that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles is on his way out and that Governor Thomas E. Dewey will likely be his successor.

Wouldn't that be something!

Here we have a lot of Democrats who are convinced that Taft is running the government and calling the shots for President Eisenhower.

There is no love lost between Taft and Dewey. As a matter of fact these two men are bitter enemies. They would do anything to keep the other fellow out of favor with the President.

It was rumored that Dewey had been offered a place in the first cabinet by the President, and that Dewey had rejected the offer. If this is true, we do not expect to see him accept this rumored offer, regardless how insistent the White House may become.

We feel sorry for the President in this dilemma. He is entitled to the best brains in his party in order to make a success of his administration. If current rumors are correct, we have two little men who are willing to wreck the advantage which the President has gained just for their personal gains.

So far Taft has been more of the aggressor in trying to run affairs of government than Dewey. Maybe Dewey is a little more discreet than the Senator, and knows when to keep his mouth shut. If Taft used the language with which he is credited in his recent speech on Korea and the UN, then he is too small to hold his present job as ramrod of the Republican party.

We are definitely confused and somewhat worried over this situation.

Dulles may be on the way out because the job is too big for him; and again he may prefer the role of a free lance such as he enjoyed in the Truman administration.

What's the use of speculating these hot days?

General Thompson Has Been on The Job For 22 Long, Long Years

We recall very distinctly when Governor Allied called General Ernest O. Thompson to Austin and urged him to take a place on the railroad commission. He reluctantly accepted, and told the writer that he did not intend staying more than a year or so. He has been there ever since.

During that period of time, he has made just one other race for a different office. This was for Governor of Texas. After his defeat, he settled down to make a good hand for Texas.

General Thompson stands for conservation. He has been of greater value to the oil industry than any other man in the state. His administration has been so successful that he has never had to make a serious race for re-election. The taxpayers of Texas know that he has been of great value to them, and they have stood by him.

Texas needs more men with such a broad vision as Ernest Thompson.

Short Talk Made To Cowmen by A So-Called Expert in Business

Naturally the fellow who knows the least about your business has the most advice to offer you.

We are not giving advice to the cowman, who knows more in a minute about the business than we shall ever know. But we repeat some of the advice which we heard the other day from the biggest organization in the world. The theme was that the cowman brought part of the present disaster upon himself by holding onto his breeding stock at a time when he should have been unloading it.

This man believes that all of the older cows and many of the young cows should be marketed in order to save the cattle industry from disaster. There are now about 100,000,000 cattle in the nation today, whereas the number must be reduced in order to stabilize the market.

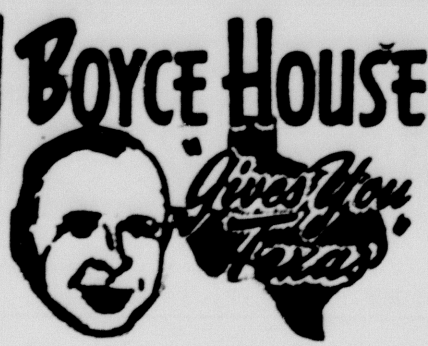

It's your turn to guess. So just guess as to what the situation really is and put forth your remedy.

It may be dangerous to have a great amount of money but, personally, we have decided, if the occasion presents itself, we will try to be brave and risk it.

It is surprising how many Republican Senators had solutions for ending the Korean War once the Communists indicated renewed interest in a truce.

Whoever runs from an enemy permits an enemy to run his life.

Hard work still represents the main essential of success in life.

The first convention ever held in Texas (in October, 1832, at San Felipe de Austin) petitioned the Mexican Congress to admit free of duty such "articles as are indispensable to the prosperity of Texas, among which the convention begs leave to enumerate the following:

"Provisions, iron and steel, machinery, farming utensils, tools of the various mechanic arts, hardware, hallow ware, etc., tobacco in small quantities for chewing."

Is the expression, "get shut of" or "get shed of?"

And is the word "ruckus" or "rucus?"

I have often read that Robert E. Lee was second in his class when he graduated at West Point. Your columnist has finally found out who stood first. His name was Charles Mason.

James Stephen Hogg, first native Texan to become governor, said to friends on the evening of March 3, 1906, "I don't want, when I die, any cold marble placed at the head of my grave. I want a soft-shell Texas pecan tree planted there and, at the foot, a regular walnut; and when they bear fruit, I want the nuts sent out to the farmers of Texas that they may plant."

Next morning at 11 o'clock, he was dead.

The property captured in the Battle of San Jacinto was auctioned off and brought $18,184, of which $3,000 was awarded the Texas navy and the remainder was equally divided among the officers and men of Sam Houston's army. Each man's share was less than $20.

The Republic of Texas sent ambassadors — or, more correctly, ministers — to Great Britain, Spain, the Netherlands, France, Belgium and the United States.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that average primary market prices decreased 0.1 per cent during the last week in May, due primarily to a decline of 0.9 per cent in farm products prices—cattle and grains. Fresh fruits and vegetables were somewhat higher and pork products caused the meat index to increase 1.4 per cent.

Highlights and Sidelights FROM your State CAPITOL

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN: Return of the tidelands' title to the states by the federal government does not write finis to the long, dramatic story of submerged lands.

Texas, for example, owns the lands under the Gulf of Mexico to a distance of 10.3 miles (or three leagues). Beyond that line, the "continental shelf" is the property of the federal government.

It is expected that now the tidelands controversy is settled, both the state and the federal government will start leasing land for oil development.

What will that do?

Will great production from the continental shelf cut down the demand for Texas (including tidelands) oil?

These are questions that remain to be answered, and they have considerable significance for Texans, because the oil industry is the state's greatest taxpayer.

If, for example, the tidelands produce heavily and provide a tremendous revenue to the state, other tax sources will not have to be tapped heavily.

If, on the other hand, the continental shelf becomes a major oil producer, the tax revenue will go to the federal government, and Texas taxpayers will suffer accordingly.

Answers to the questions posed here may be long in coming, but in the meantime there are bound to be many columns of newspaper space devoted to them.

Top issues are involved. For instance, if the tidelands yield sufficient tax revenue, the teachers' pay can be increased — and therein lies one of the hottest governmental issues in Texas today.

It is an issue, by the way, that will certainly figure outstandingly in the political campaigns of next summer.

You may be certain that prospective candidates, who are writing their platforms now, are putting the question of teacher pay at the top of their lists.

There remains, of course, the possibility that a special session of the legislature may solve the problem by providing more money for teachers.

Even so, teacher pay will remain a political issue, both in state and local races.

Legislators seeking re-election may in some instances have a hard time if it is shown that they opposed the $600 per month pay increase for teachers.

Current demand for Texas oil was boosted when the Exchange Crude Oil Purchasing Company of Dallas offered to buy from the state 15,000 barrels of oil per day for a price two per cent or five cents a barrel above the top market price.

New Mexico already has accepted a similar proposal, which is part of an overall project to operate a pipeline from Midland to Los Angeles.

The West Coast Pipeline Company would operate the 960-mile facility, which would cost a billion dollars and carry a total of 300,000 barrels of crude per day.

Land Commissioner Bascom Giles said he would probably ask for more money for the Texas crude, and that a decision on the offer would be made in about two weeks.

The state supreme court upheld its former decision by ruling against rehearing two test cases attacking the natural gas "gathering" tax.

This tax was passed by the 1951 Legislature and immediately challenged by the gas companies. It has been in the courts ever since, and the revenue from the tax has been piling up, unspent.

If and when the court's decision becomes final, it is expected that Governor Shivers will call a special session of the Legislature to appropriate the money.

Governor Shivers has signed a bill that hits at beer taverns and undertakes to keep liquor gangsters out of Texas.

The bill, sponsored by the state liquor control board and the liquor and beer associations, gives the board wider powers to close up beer and liquor establishments that are indecent or jeopardize the public safety.

Under the new law there are 31 causes for which the Liquor Control Board may suspend or cancel a beer retailers permit, as compared with 15 in the present law.

It attempts to keep gangsters out of Texas by requiring that liquor establishments must be 51 per cent Texas-owned.

Another provision is that counties may vote to permit sale of alcoholic beverages for off-premise consumption only. That would put the beer tavern out of the picture.

Four illicit stills were seized by Texas Liquor Control Board agents during April, and Coke R. Stevenson, Jr., the board's administrator commented that high federal taxes on whiskey encourages moonshining.

The administrator recalled that the national conference of liquor administrators, recently held in Minneapolis, passed a resolution asking the federal government to reduce taxes on whiskey so that it can be sold at a price that is more competitive with the moonshine.

Dr. J. M. Bethea assumed his duties as executive director of the state board for hospitals and special schools. Thus he will be in charge of the care and treatment of 30,000 persons in state institutions.

A retired army general, Dr. Bethea was formerly commanding officer at McCloskey General Hospital at Temple. Previously he was head of Brooks Army Medical Center, San Antonio.

Hunters will be interested in a law passed by the recent legislature and granting the state game commission power to regulate seasons and bag limits in Gillespie, Kerr, and Mason counties — in the hill country where deer abound.

Previously, the regulations were set by the legislature itself.

One purpose of the new law was to bring about legalized killing of does which, game experts say, are getting too numerous.

A showdown test of the State Parks Board's powers to borrow $3,000,000 to build three resort hotels in Texas is in motion.

Plans are drawn for three, one million dollar lodges and other facilities to be built with private capital in state parks at Lake Texoma, near Denison, Inks Lake near Burnet, and Possum Kingdom Lake near Mineral Wells.

A court test will undoubtedly be necessary to determine the validity of the financial plan.

Attorney General John Ben Shappard advised a legislative committee that issuance of negotiable revenue bonds for the purpose would be illegal.

Representative Jack Fisk of Wharton tried unsuccessfully to have the 1953 Legislature pass a law prohibiting erection of the lodges. He threatens to file an injunction suit against the board if necessary to stop the construction.

Fisk contends that the resorts would compete with private tourist courts and hotels and that if the projects failed the state would be liable.

SHORT SNORTS: Ed Reichelt has resigned as an assistant attorney general to join a law firm in Fort Worth ... ## Judge Stokes Sees No Danger of War With Russians

Judge W. N. Stokes of Amarillo spoke Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon on the Russian situation. He was presented by Dr. J. A. Hill, chairman of the International Service committee.

Judge Stokes quoted a preacher who had spent months in Russia, traveling throughout the nation. The people are suspicious above all other characteristics. They have been a slave nation, doing the bidding of their leaders.

The Russians are loyal to only one thing—their soil. They will fight to preserve it, but they are not interested in going outside of Russia to start a war. For this reason the speaker can see no danger of a shooting war with Russia.

Stalin was a great leader of the Russians because he was the greatest killer of modern times. There is a book, "Cracks in the Kremlin Wall," which Judge Stokes believes points out doom for the evangelistic spirit of the leaders. The greatest crack came in Stalin's death. The successors of Stalin are not killers, therefore do not command the respect of the Russian people.

Visitors were Joe Chapman of Perryton; Glenn H. Wright of Erick, Okla.; Geo. W. Taylor, Bill Dell, Cliff Milner, Joe C. Rogers, L. Wood Jackson, Van H. Allm, W. F. Perkins, Loy Ledbetter, all of Amarillo.

W. O. Parker read a letter from Mayor Andy Walsh urging conservation of the water supply of Canyon.

WASHINGTON AND

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

In Washington it is not felt that it was by accident that a horse named Eisenhower was hitched up to pull the Royal State Coach during the Coronation. In fact, betting is even that if the event had occurred a year ago, there would have been a horse named Truman hitched to the Royal State Coach instead.

British wit is noted for being wry and dry. It is also sardonic, and thus many feel that this aspect of the ceremony was a tactic admission that C. W. Harder the pomp and glitter presented depended upon support from the American government.

And with similar tongue in cheek tactics, the British also launched the grandiose slogan "Trade, Not Aid" in the drive to break down American tariff protection to permit the flooding of the U. S. market.

The great mystery in many circles in Washington is the effectiveness of British salesmanship in selling these ideas to many presumably intelligent Americans, aside from the American businesses with plants abroad.

But despite their ringing acclaim for the principle of "Trade, Not Aid", British leaders continue to prove that they either have no intention, nor ability to work out free trade even among their own Dominions.

Mutual Security Bulletin No. 317 contains an interesting demonstration of classic British thinking on free trade.

It seems apparent that the cornerstone of their thinking on free trade is first that someone in authority in America make

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

All evidence in the hands of U. S. indicates that Russia is falling farther and farther behind in the atomic race. Georgi Malenkov's new line, one of soft talk, grows from weakness, not from strength.

Dean Acheson, former Secretary of State, feels that the Republicans are vindicating his foreign policy by following its outline down to small details. President Eisenhower went somewhat further than Mr. Acheson was prepared to go in order to get a deal with Communists in Korea.

It turns out now that John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, was putting up a trial balloon when he indicated to newspapermen that the United States might be interested in a United Nations trusteeship for Formosa. Moves in that direction are being readied to follow a Korean truce.

Top policy makers of this Government are caught flat-footed by the Communist peace offensive, plans or special ideas about how to keep Russia from making big new gains through its use.

Mr. Eisenhower did not talk a word of business when he had Herbert Hoover and Douglas MacArthur to dinner recently. At no point in the true negotiations did the President confide in or ask the advice of General MacArthur.

The President was so pleased by result of his first television show that he is planning a series of panel-type TV programs. The programs he has in mind will not only feature members of the Cabinet and himself, but will permit Congressmen who are opposed to his policies to get in on the shows.

Hints are being dropped by some leaders in the Eisenhower Administration that a compromise may be acceptable on the tax-cut issue, with October 1 to be the cut-off date for the excess-profits tax and the start of tax reduction for individuals.

Charles Wilson, Secretary of Defense, is credited with doing a high-class job before committees of Congress in defending his plans for cuts in defense spending. Some of those who had figured that Mr. Wilson's proposals were getting him into political trouble are predicting now that he will be in his job at the end of a four-year term.

Cabinet officers are tending to complain more and more about the time they must spend before committees of Congress answering questions. Some members of the Cabinet say that one-third of their day is spent on Capitol Hill, making it hard to get other work done.

As an example of how the Russians do things: After World War II, in settling for Lend-Lease goods in the pipe line after war stopped, the Russians paid in gold. The payment was the gold that the United States had paid to Russia in 1867 for the purchase of Alaska, with this gold still in its original containers.

There is a little official uneasiness over the fact that India's Pandit Nehru is praising President Eisenhower for his true deal when he never had public praise for Dean Acheson. Mr. Nehru has worked quite closely with the Communist leaders in China.

V. M. Molotov is masterminding Russia's new moves in the diplomatic game. It was Molotov who, in 1939, convinced Great Britain and France that he was their friend while he was busy working out a deal with Hitler that really touched off World War II.

Sir Winston Churchill, Britain's Prime Minister, is sending personal messages to Russian leaders in the Kremlin to prepare the ground for a coming Big Four meeting. Churchill has let President Eisenhower see the messages after they were sent, but is making it clear that he acts on his own.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, signing Offshore Oil Bill: "I deplore and will always resist Federal encroachments on the rights and affairs of the states."

Abba S. Eban, Israeli Ambassador to the U. S.: "The absence of peace today is preventing the Middle East from making the economic progress it is capable of."

Dr. Mary Macaulay, British marriage expert: "People good with their minds are not always good with their emotions."

When You Move . . .

Keeping up with those on the move is quite a job for even an average country weekly newspaper.

When you move, PLEASE notify this paper in advance.

Give us the old address: Your new address: The date that you wish the paper changed.

Every week we have a few papers which are returned, two cents due; indicating that either people have moved; without leaving an address; or failed to have their paper changed in advance. It costs a lot of money to service these subscriptions.

Heart Trouble Not Always Case Heart Disease

"I think there must be something wrong with the old ticker!"

It ain't necessarily so. People who consult a doctor because they fear they have heart disease often find their symptoms are of little or no importance. Of course, their alertness is worthwhile because if heart disease is present, it is discovered in time for treatment to do the most good. Also, disease in other parts of the body may be disclosed.

A number of symptoms may point to or be confused with heart disease. The following is a partial list: rapid beating of the heart (palpitation), tiredness which is brought on easily, shortness of breath, pain in the heart and stomach region, fainting, dizziness, trembling, loss of feeling or swelling (edema) of parts of the body, or cold, clammy hands and feet.

Medical examination can reassure the patient he's all right if no disease is found or lead to early treatment if it is. Prompt, correct treatment of heart ailments in most cases adds years to the life span and permits the patient to lead a happier, more useful life.

Several Procedures

Several procedures are indispensable to the doctor in examination of the patient with suspected heart disease. First, as in other diseases, the medical history and physical examination are of utmost importance; the patient's complaints contribute much to a correct diagnosis. Several machines give precise information about the heart. The electrocardiograph traces a pattern of the heart's action. With the x-ray machine may be seen the size and shape of the heart, appearance of the heart's chambers and valves, and perhaps defects of the heart and nearby blood vessels. Dyes or opaque substances that will cast an x-ray shadow can be injected into the veins; when they reach the heart, its parts can be seen clearly and in great detail. Interpreting the results of the many varieties of tests made with these machines requires much skill. Some diagnostic methods can be carried out only with the use of special equipment and medical teams that include heart specialists (cardiologists).

Two Chief Causes

Two chief causes of heart disease are rheumatic fever and high blood pressure (hypertension). The former attacks chiefly children and young adults; the latter, more mature persons, usually 30 years and older.

In the South, rheumatic fever is less common and usually strikes in a milder form. In fact, its mildness may cause its early symptoms to be overlooked completely, with the first evidence lying in a damaged heart. All victims do not have this complication, however. Doctors have noticed that rheumatic fever almost always follows a "strep" infection, such as "strep" throat, tonsillitis, erysipelas, scarlet fever, or middle ear infection. If the attack is mild, the usual symptoms of hot, swollen joints may easily be taken for "growing pains."

Children who have one attack of rheumatic fever are highly susceptible to subsequent attacks when exposed again to the "strep" germ. Therefore, medical advice is to guard them in every way possible by isolating them from those who may have "strep" infections.

High Blood Pressure

High blood pressure usually yields to conservative medical measures, such as diet, rest, and drugs. Many new safe and effective drugs have been perfected. Several operations performed on carefully selected patients have given good results. One is the removal of a diseased or deformed kidney which is known definitely to be responsible for the hypertension. Another, called "sympathectomy," is removal of part of the sympathetic nervous system, two chains of nerves running along each side of the spinal column. Not entirely essential to life, these nerves supply the heart, glands, smooth muscles, and small blood vessels of the body.

Early detection of heart disease and correct treatment means that most patients with heart ailments can look forward to a longer, more satisfying life.

DRAFT DECREASE

The recent order reducing the size of the armed forces by 291,000 effective on June 30, 1954, is expected to reduce the draft calls of young men between the ages of 19 and 26. The available pool of men of this age group has been practically exhausted and there are just not enough men turning 18 and a half each year to keep up a force of 3,647,000, so the decision was made to reduce the size of the armed forces, rather than have Congress raise the draft period above two years.

Just why is being a Father so akin to being a farmer? "My son, you have to live with your job day and night if you make a good crop." How true! What a statement! This dad business is big business; so big you need a partner ... God. Father's Day is pay day for Dad. Not in things they hand you in gift-wrapped boxes but in the pay that brings a lump to your throat and moisture to your eyes. Being a father is where men come nearest being like God. He may be tanned of face and rough of hand, but his big heart is very tender. Stamina, Dad, Fortitude; those are words for you. A good father is the world's biggest success.

Who Is Owner of "The Mystery Farm" of This Week?

Here's the mystery farm for this week, can you identify it? There are several distinctive features to help you be sure of the identification. For instance there are the two wagon wheels leaning against the front fence. The pole for the electric wires in front and the semi-circular position of the trees in the rear. Incidentally, that pick-up truck in the upper right is sitting at the garage doors which might help you identify the place. When the owner comes to the Canyon News office and identifies his farm he will receive a mounted gloss photograph of his farm absolutely free.

BACK TAXES

More than 1,170,000 taxpayers still owe the Federal Government tax payments for 1951 and prior years, amounting to $856,949,000—an all-time high, according to the Internal Revenue Bureau. That's more than enough to pay the interest for one month on the entire national debt of approximately $260,000,000,000. Since there are more than 50,000,000 taxpayers, about one out of every 50 is delinquent in some payments.

WELFARE JOBS

The Health, Education and Welfare Department has given dismissal notices to about 1,200 employees because of prospective budget cuts. Public Health Service received a net cut of 1,000; Food and Drug Administration, 100; Office of Education, 50, and miscellaneous, 50.

PLANE SEATS

One of the nation's airlines — North American Airlines — has announced that it has inaugurated commercial passenger service with rearward-facing seats. The company said the backs of the specially-designed seats will support the head and body to minimize effects of any accident.

The term "hand" in measuring the height of a horse, is four inches.

What Number Will He Call Next?

UNTIL YOU LIFT YOUR RECEIVER, no one knows what your next telephone call will be — or when you'll want it. Telephone calls can't be manufactured ahead of time and kept in stock until you order one. Every call must be tailor-made — within a few seconds after you place your order. Here in Texas, 28,000 telephone people are devoting their time and skill to manufacturing your telephone calls. They are at your service 24 hours a day, 365 days a year — at a cost to you of less than a package of cigarettes a day. SOUTHWESTERN BELL ... A TEAM OF 28,000 TEXANS ... ## AUTO THIEVES

The average age of an auto thief in this country is 18, according to figures presented at the first annual convention of the International Association of Auto Theft Investigators. While he may be just a youth trying to show off, a teenager looking for a thrill, or a professional out for a fast dollar, the car thief is becoming a serious national problem.

WORK WEEK

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that the average work week for factory workers in this country was 48 hours — as many hours as during the peak of World War II and one hour more a week than a year ago. The report showed average weekly earnings at $71.40, near the record level, and hourly pay averaged $1.85, including overtime.

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

Fleet operators, farmers, independent truckers—truck users everywhere—buy more Chevrolets than any other make. There can be only one reason for that: Chevrolet trucks offer more of what you want.

As the official registration figures keep rolling in, they keep telling the same positive story about truck popularity and truck value: Again in 1953, for the twelfth straight production year, truck buyers show a clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks.

If you're a truck user, this fact is mighty important to you. Why? Well, as you know, trucks are built and bought for just one reason—to do a job. So isn't it logical then that since Chevrolet trucks outsell all others, they must do a better job at lower cost?

That's why it will pay you to stop in and see us before you buy your next truck.

Farm Quotas

Look for quotas on both cotton and wheat next year.

Cotton farmers from the Pecos area, here last week, urged Agriculture Department to consider recent heavy increases in cotton planting in Texas when lower acreage quotas are set for 1954.

Recent ruling by the Department's solicitor says 1954 quotas must be based on planting of past seven years, not including 1953. Plantings in West Texas and South Plains were much smaller in 1947 and 1948 than in more recent years. The ruling, if it stands, would require growers in these sections to take acreage cuts far greater than the national average.

Revision of wheat quota laws will be proposed to bring them more nearly in line with laws covering cotton, tobacco, peanuts. Congressman W. R. Poage of Waco reports House Agriculture Committee, of which he is a member, is working on revisions.

Economy

First seven regular appropriation bills passed by the House cut Eisenhower budget figures by 8.6 per cent.

Senate also is economy-minded. Last week, for example, in passing appropriations bill for State, Justice and Commerce Departments, we cut out an appropriation and expenditure authority totaling over 40 million dollars for ship subsidies. I supported the cut.

Loans and Grants

During first five months of this year, Texas received the following Federal loans and grants: $394,000 for one telephone co-operative affecting five counties; $2,433,000 for 10 electric co-operatives affecting 59 counties; $1,457,303 for 125 schools in 41 counties.

Hillbilly Music

I recently asked for advice about a request I had received to support a resolution naming a National Hillbilly Music Day. A Houston lady writes: "If we must have such a day — let it be February 29. That would save us from such a celebration except every four years." Anybody else?

What's Ahead?

Rent control will end July 31 in Berger, Lone Star, Port Lavaca, Rockdale, Big Spring, Hondo, Mineral Wells and Weatherford.

Prospect is bright for extension of Reciprocal Trade Act, without crippling amendments.

Proposed appropriations cut for Federal Petroleum Board will likely be restored. This is the agency that enforces the Connally Hot Oil Act. Charlie Devall, aggressive Texas publisher, wrote in his Kilgore News Herald a strong editorial on the subject, which I had inserted in the Congressional Record.

Scouts Hammer Amarillo 10-4

Boy Scouts of Troop 66 went the distance in a five inning baseball game without benefit of substitutes Saturday afternoon and won 10-4 over the Amarillo YMCA junior baseball league.

Leonard Miller pitched for Canyon. He struck out 12 men, allowed six hits, walked three, and allowed four runs to be scored. It was also the game in which Donnie Ford had his first try at catching. Over on the loser's side, Mathis pitched and Stark was the catcher.

Troop 66 got their ten runs with nine hits and two walks and did not take their last turn at bat. Miller's pitching was so effective that only two balls were hit to the outfield and few were even hit to the infield.

A junior baseball team from Dumas will play Troop 66 here in Canyon Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Dumas will have a curve ball artist on the mound for them. Miller or Shepherd will probably start the pitching for Troop 66.

Saturday's lineup for Canyon was Ford, catcher; Barnhill, left field; Hunter, center field; Boswell, first base; Miller, pitcher; Shepherd, second base; Young, shortstop; and Bailey at third and Hanks at right field.

RUTH SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HAS LAWN PARTY THURSDAY

Crosby, Dennis Ford, Bill Fonti, Joe Gill, Jack Grundy, Clark Harvey, Lawrence Hunnicutt, Crawford Kiker, J. B. Lawless, W. T. McGregor, Crawford Ruthart, Don Schmit, Wayne Wirt, Woodrow Wilson, and the hostess.

Pinch of Salt in Water May Stop Pains Due to Heat

If your work is such that it causes excessive perspiration, add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take to help prevent heat cramps. This is advised by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, to prevent a possible increase in the number of heat victims as the Texas thermometer hits 95 degrees and above.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting heat cramps or heat fog. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body may lose as high as 40 to 50 grams of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be prevented by taking salt in various ways. Where prepared tablets are not available, table salt may be added to each drink of water. Milk is a source of salt and will help to make up for the deficiency caused by sweating. Alcoholic drinks should be avoided.

Heat cramp is characterized by pains (cramps) in the abdominal region, headache, and in severe cases, by nausea and vomiting. The body temperature remains about normal, likewise the pulse rate. Body salt losses occur without the knowledge of the individual until there is a deficiency; then the abdominal muscles begin to cramp.

Tea Announces Soll-Cooper Wedding Date

The home of Mrs. B. B. Parmer, 2113 Monroe, Amarillo, was the setting recently for the announcement of the approaching marriage of Ruth Soll, daughter of Fred Soll, to Jack Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cooper. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. S. H. Condrion, Miss Ruth Cross, and Mrs. Parmer.

Making up the receiving line were Miss Cross, Mrs. Parmer, Mrs. Condrion, the bride-elect, and Mrs. L. A. Cooper, mother of the groom-to-be.

Charming floral decorations were found throughout the lovely home. Miss Beverly Soll, sister of the bride-to-be, presided at the guest book.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth over white satin. In the center was a small raised platform covered with rose lace. A miniature rose-colored grand piano filled with pink Elfin roses was centered on the miniature stage. Gold musical notes were scattered around the piano. Around the base of the platform was the inscription "Ruth and Jack, July 14."

Green punch, individual white cakes and green and white mints carried out the bride-elect's chosen colors of green and white. Green tapers completed the lovely table setting.

Mrs. Jill Kirk, sister of the groom-to-be, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Duane Williams, cousin of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Ann Smith served the cakes.

Other friends of the bride-elect in the house party were Mrs. Ellen Knighton, Mrs. Leta Swartzell, and Miss Reba Killian.

CENTRAL H. D. REPORTS

The Central Home Demonstration Club met Friday, June 12, at 3 o'clock in the home of Mrs. S. L. Terry.

Telling of the flower each enjoyed most in her yard this year was used as the opening exercise conducted by Mrs. George Barker.

Council report was given by Mrs. Levi Cole. The program on the tax dollar was presented by Mesdames Barker, Van Pennington, and Levi Cole.

At the social hour lovely refreshments were served to Mrs. T. W. Henderson, visitor, P. L. Pitt, C. I. Danner, Frank R. Phillips, Otto White, Cole, Mae Johnson, Lillie Foster, Rae M. Walters, R. H. Long, Barker, Pennington, W. E. Reid, Velton Sogee, and Rieke.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. I. Danner on June 26.

OUR NEW TEXAS LAWS

By John Ben Shepperd
Attorney General of Texas

(Second in a series of three articles by the Attorney General of Texas relative to laws recently enacted by the 53rd Legislature.)

Of particular interest to sportsmen are several general provisions added to our game and fish conservation laws. Formerly, a person's hunting or fishing license was automatically revoked if he was convicted of violating any game laws. Now, the court must determine if the license will be revoked, suspended or left in force.

A total of 53 laws governing the taking of fish, minnows, quail, turkeys, pheasants, deer, squirrel, oysters, and fox were enacted. All of these acts have only county wide application.

A resolution was passed which instructed the Legislative Council to study our present game laws and report back to the next session of the Legislature. This might be a step to eliminate some of more than 1200 different laws governing the taking of wildlife in Texas.

Another law of general interest relates to persons who drive while intoxicated. It is now provided that upon conviction, a jail sentence of from 3 days to 2 years may be imposed (a judge may allow a suspended sentence of six months) and a fine of from $50 to $500.

For a number of years, a non-resident could operate his car over our highways and when involved in an accident almost always escape paying any damages. If he did pay damages, the cost of suing him in another state took most of what was recovered.

Now, these nonresidents may be sued by serving the State Highway Commissioner. Texas is among the last of the states to adopt this procedure.

Another law extends educational benefits to Korean War veterans and their orphan children by permitting them to enter state colleges without paying tuition charges.

If a person entitled to an old age assistance check, or aid to the blind or dependent children's check, is alive on the first day of the month or when his check is issued and then dies, the Department of Public Welfare may endorse the check and make it payable to the person who took care of the person before he died.

For a number of years the Federal Communications Commission has prohibited a radio station from editing any political speeches. Texas law has provided that the station would be liable for any libelous or slanderous statement going over the airways of the station.

Our new law now provides that where a radio or television station is not allowed to censor the material, it cannot be held liable for damages. Although the person making the statements can still be sued, it appears that our political campaigns will warm up.

A number of tax bills were discussed but not acted upon by the Legislature, but one passed which reduced the admission tax for picture shows, plays, etc., where the admission charge exceeds 80 cents. That same bill also repealed the state tax on free passes. Another tax bill passed which repealed one of the duplicate taxes set up in two different places. Independent school districts were also given wider taxing powers.

Looking at the 53rd Legislature and the session of two years ago, some interesting comparisons may be made. A total of 927 bills were introduced in the House this year as compared with 831 in 1951. In the Senate, 354 were introduced this session as compared with 475 last session. This year, 462 bills were passed by both Houses and sent to the Governor for signature, while 540 were sent to the Governor in 1951.

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost . . .

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

Clyde W. Warwick, editor and publisher, was out of town a few days at the end of last week. Mr. Warwick was attending the Texas Press Association convention which was held in Mineral Wells. Those people who have been complaining about the heat up here should have a little talk with Mr. Warwick about the heat in Mineral Wells. It may get hot here but it gets hotter in some of the other places of the U. S. A.

Probably the best way to make it rain in these parts is to say it's going to continue being dry. Even the elements will go out of their way to disprove the things that appear in this column. In order to do everything possible for the good of the farmer we predict a continued dry period and hope that the prediction falls flat as a Sunday morning pancake.

Rex Reeves, principal of West Texas Elementary School, has been a little busier than he thought he was going to be during this summer session of school. Students have come from three states and 33 towns to attend school here. It's nice to know that people have confidence in you but it also adds a terrific responsibility to your daily schedule. If you don't believe it, ask Mr. Reeves.

One of the classes being conducted in the basement of the Administrative Building at West Texas State is a crafts class under the supervision of Pat Boddy. Pat is doing student teaching this summer and many people who have visited his crafts class say he is doing an excellent job.

Those of you who want a little insight on what happens inside a weekly newspaper office should be sure to see the show at the Canyon Drive-In Sunday and Monday. The title is "It Happens Every Thursday," and it's the story of a weekly newspaper and the difficulties faced in operating such a business. We haven't had a sneak preview of the show but Charlie Donnell was telling us about the picture. He said the setting of the movie was a modern weekly newspaper office and not a weekly of 50 years ago. Of course it's drama'd up a bit to make it more interesting but if you are really interested in the trials and tribulations of a weekly newspaper man, see the show at the Canyon Drive-In Sunday or Monday.

Say, have you heard the latest revolution story? It concerns the United States and a little spot called Socorro, New Mexico. According to the story, the Socorro people found an old Spanish land grant which shows the land as belonging to an old Spanish family. It seems that the Spanish family long ago disappeared and now the Socorro people have no one to call pappy so they simply declare themselves a free republic. Life magazine ran a story on the situation over there. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Parker were in Socorro when the Life photographers were there getting pictures. They said you had to have visas to get in and out just like going to Europe or South America. What we want to know is, that since becoming a free republic, have they reduced the peoples' taxes?

The Branding Iron Theatre production, "Two Blind Mice," directed by William A. Moore, completed its run last week and the Palo Duro Players are already working on another production. The next production will be "All My Sons," by Arthur Miller, which promises to be outstanding. More about it next week.

It might be well for some to remember that, to acquire wealth is difficult, to preserve it more difficult, and to spend it wisely is most difficult.

There was also a wise guy who once thought he knew it all. He made a million dollars with stocks and bonds and lost it with brunettes and blondes.

Two co-eds were discussing the difficulties of the English language when they got to talking of the troubles some girls had with it. ## CCYC Appeals To President For Week of Prayer

Canyon Christian Youth Council met recently to elect officers. At the meeting David Miller was elected president, Lila Mae Hunter, vice-president, Janelda Cunningham, secretary, Al Meyers, treasurer, Ray Green and Frances Pennington, publicity chairman. New officers will take office September 1.

On May 1, Ray Green, David Miller, and Dorothy Neblett attended the meeting of the Texas Christian Youth Council in Dallas. At this meeting, a telegram was sent to President Eisenhower urging him to declare "A World Week of Prayer for Peace." This idea was inspired by his talk of April 16.

With this idea in mind, the various councils returned to their respective towns. The Canyon Youth Council in approving the project began by holding morning watch at the high school with 40 young persons in attendance. The telegram to be sent to the president read:

"We, the Canyon Christian Youth Council, believe that your speech of April 16th was written under inspiration from God. We believe that prayer alone can save the world. And so all the Christian Youth of Canyon are praying that you will call for a 'Week of Universal Prayer' that people everywhere may ask for guidance of God, and do His will for the world."

After the reading of the telegram each person was urged to begin that day praying for peace. Each of the churches participating in the CCYC was asked to send a telegram to the President.

Recently a letter was received by the president of CCYC from President Eisenhower's secretary. He expressed the President's appreciation for the telegram which had been sent and enclosed a copy of the President's Memorial Day Proclamation which declared Memorial Day a day of prayer for peace.

Lions Club Officers Installed at Meeting

Installation of new officers and presentation of 41 perfect attendance awards were the high points of last week's Lions Club luncheon. Nearly two-thirds of the members received perfect attendance buttons for the period from Sept. 1, of 1952 through April of this year. Total number of club members is 63 and 41 members received this award.

Milton "Buff" Morris, outgoing Lions District Governor of District 2-T1, had charge of the program and installation of new officers. In his talk to the club Morris told of the beginning of Lionism 13 years ago. He said the club had helped Canyon to become a better place in which to live, and expressed his personal thanks to the Canyon club for its support during his period of service as District Governor.

Lions' guests at Wednesday's meeting were Roy Sheets of Amarillo; Bill Cleavinger, Bryce and Harrell Slack, Griffith Graves, all of Canyon, and Tom Kirkham, special Lions representative of Lions International from Weatherford.

New officers installed Wednesday will not officially take office until July 1. The task of operating the club will be passed to them at the final board meeting of the present officers June 29.

A bright red cardinal and his plump little wife have moved into our apricot tree. Pecking contentedly at the ants and flies in the grass beneath it, they seem the hosts and we the visitors in our own backyard.

We like their trustful impertinence. Their presence seems to say, "Now here is a happy place to be."

Yet like all gentle things, they are in constant danger. And as they forage for insects, so their natural enemies the neighborhood cats make cunning plans to prey on them.

We can't, however, be too angry with the cats, who are forever being tormented by neighborhood dogs. And although we're friendly to Hans the dachshund and Freckles the water spaniel, we're quite apt to stalk an innocent fish, or chicken, or deer, in order to fetch home food for ourselves.

Not even man can follow his natural instincts of trusting and being trusted by all. For unless he stays constantly alert, there are those who would take advantage of him, too.

If it weren't for completely upsetting the laws of nature, we could wish we might all start over and leave off this cycle of hunter and hunted. Then cardinal and insect and cat could share the backyard peacefully. And man would no longer hunt down other men.

What a strange place the world would be if all suspicion and cruelty were suddenly stopped and in its place were kindness and understanding and love . . .

But what would the cardinal do with his time? Or the cat? Or we? Wouldn't it be alarming to discover that we've got to have troubles to enjoy life?

Thomas Jefferson was the first president to be inaugurated in Washington.

Warren G. Harding was the first president to ride to his inaugural in an automobile.

NEWS LETTER

From Congressman WALTER ROGERS
of the 18th Congressional District

More About The Tax Situation

The time is growing near for affirmative action to extend the excess profits tax. Unless affirmative action is taken by the Congress by June 30th, this tax will expire by its own terms.

The administration has all but demanded that this tax be extended to December 31, 1953. Whether or not the executive branch will make an all-out, no retreat, demand that Congress extend this tax will depend upon what happens within the next ten days or two weeks.

So far, the administration has respectfully requested that this tax be continued, but has not yet cracked the political whip. There has been a daily probing of the opposition forces that lie within the President's own party. The purpose of this is to find a soft spot that will enable the administration to extend the excess profits tax without resorting to cracking the political whip and causing a knock-down and drag-out fight on the floor of Congress.

The latest, and probably most effective, feeler came from Speaker Martin immediately after a recent White House conference. He commented that the failure to extend the excess profits tax could well result in no reduction of individual income taxes on December 31, of this year, as provided by law.

This was no doubt intended to disturb Chairman Reed of the House Ways and Means Committee, who is fighting for no extension of the excess profits tax and a reduction of individual income taxes as of June 30, 1953, rather than December 31, 1953. Chairman Reed does not scare easily, and he is a hard and able fighter for what he believes to be right.

The administration lost the support of the National Association of Manufacturers and the United States Chamber of Commerce on this issue. These two organizations are the largest organizations representing business in this country. They not only refused to support the administration on the issue, but refused to remain neutral as they had been requested to do, and came out in opposition to the extension.

One of the major objections to the tax is that it prevents the expansion of new businesses that do not have base periods reflecting large earnings. It has measurably hurt small business and will continue to do so.

Many of the corporations would much prefer that the excess profits tax expire and that the Congress increase the normal corporation tax rates. They argue that this would be more fair and would actually bring in more money.

As I said in a recent newsletter, if the excess profits tax is allowed to expire, you can expect a hard and tough fight for early reduction in individual income taxes.

Bureaucracy

Much has been said in the past few years about bureaucracy, and no one has condemned government by bureau and agency edict more than I have. I am increasingly disturbed by the continuing requests for more power for bureaus and agencies, and the failure to clip the wings of these administrative bodies.

Recently the Senate passed a bill bringing several agencies under the provisions of the Administrative Procedures Act that are now excepted therefrom. This action is nothing more than an enlargement of bureaucratic powers because under the provisions of the Administrative Procedures Act and the decisions of the courts in constraining that act, the rights of citizens of the United States are determined in most cases by individuals appointed by individuals appointed by elected officials.

You may think that the record got stuck or that I was stuttering when I wrote this, but such is not the case. Many of the persons who are primarily instrumental in the decisions rendered as between individual citizens are three, four or five appointments away from the official elected by the people.

Provisions in the laws granting the right to court review by an aggrieved party are of no consequence, simply because the courts have no authority to go behind the actions of the administrative body.

On the Outside Looking In

Much of our bureaucratic headache has been caused by brief and unnoticed provisions in laws that appear to be very sensible and expeditious. However, experience has proven that we are paying the high price of losing our day in court by capitulating to unnecessary speed in the determination of our rights.

The promotion of our way of life and the freedoms which we so jealously guard would be much better served if the money being spent in many of these administrative agencies was being used for increasing our court system. It makes little difference which party is in power or which individual is in charge of a bureau or administrative agency, there is a never ceasing pressure from these bureaus and agencies for more and greater power. These practices will not be stopped by politics. They will only be stopped by statesmanship.

MURRAY CLASS COVERED DISH SUPPER IS HELD THURSDAY

Members and guests of the Murray Bible Class gathered in the lovely back yard of Mrs. Felix Pierce Thursday evening for a covered dish supper as a birthday surprise to honor Mrs. James H. Scott, who is leaving Monday with her family for Camp Polk, La.

Before the delicious supper was eaten, as the first hint of the occasion, "Happy Birthday" was sung to the honoree. Then as a double surprise a wheelbarrow loaded with beautiful personal shower gifts was wheeled in front of the astonished guest of honor.

Approximately 40 guests attended or sent gifts.

MARY WILLIAMS IS HOSTESS FOR SUNNYHILL H. D. CLUB

The Sunnyhill Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mary Williams Thursday.

The business meeting was short. Myra Nell Culp gave the council report. Mrs. J. B. Knox gave the THDA report.

Miss Patterson demonstrated the making of a sponge cake.

Refreshments were served to Maureen Allison, Myra Nell Culp, Gene Robinson, Ester Quarnstrom, Leona Henry, Lois Stevens, Sue Miller, Rosie Miller, Mrs. J. B. Knox, Mary Jane Miller, Miss Patterson, and the hostess.

The next meeting will be on June 23rd with Sue Miller.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Cundiff, James and Elaine, left Sunday for a two week vacation that will take them to points of interest in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, and Wyoming.

Over 500,000 people will visit the Statue of Liberty every year.

What is the most valuable thing General Electric ever built?

Is it the jet engine? In 1942, General Electric gave America's air arm its first jet muscles. Would you say that is our most valuable product?

Or would you elect the fluorescent lamp? We placed the first ones on sale in 1938. With the growth of fluorescent lighting Americans are using 3½ times more light than even 10 years ago.

Maybe you would say our star performer is the steam turbine. All you do is flip a switch, and a turbine somewhere instantly responds to provide the power to pump for you, or push or lift.

How about x-ray? Your doctor holds a negative up to the light and peers at bones he says are really yours. Who can say how many lives the x-ray tube has saved?

Important as these products are, more valuable to us—and to you—is something these products have helped to build. Something born quietly in 1878, when electricity was still a curious toy. And something that has grown steadily through the years.

The most valuable thing we ever built is your good will. For your year-after-year confidence in the things we make has given us the means to serve you better. Better engineering, research, manufacturing—all have come from your belief in us. It returns to you in a constantly improving and expanding way of life.

Make a
Double-Date
with a
"Rocket 8"!

DRIVE IT YOURSELF!

You want a car you'll both be happy with—one that performs for a man, handles easily for a woman. We believe Oldsmobile's the answer. That's why we're launching this special "Double-Date" campaign—inviting you to come in and drive the Super "83" or Classic Ninety-Eight together. See for yourself how the "Rocket" Engine rules the straightaway, how Hydra-Matic's Super Range levels the hills, how the Power-Ride Chassis seems to iron out the roughest roads. Then...

LET HER DRIVE IT TOO!

You'll learn that Oldsmobile has a double appeal—to men and women alike. She's probably told you already how she loves Oldsmobile's long, sweeping lines and luxurious Custom-Lounge interiors. But at the wheel she'll discover that this big, powerful car is as obedient to her light touch as to yours—with Power Steering* and Power Brakes* taking the work out of driving. Come in soon. Discover the double appeal of Oldsmobile... together!

*These Power Features and new Automatic-Eye are optional at extra cost.

Personal Shower Honors Miss Hill

A personal shower honoring Miss Mary Ruth Hill, bride-elect of Chester Dowell, was given on Wednesday evening, June 10, in the home of Miss Ava Dooley. Co-hostesses with Miss Dooley were Mrs. Frank Heare of Miami and Miss Wanda Edwards.

The serving table was centered with an arrangement of sweetpeas and larkspur flanked by lighted tapers of the bride-elect's chosen colors. Refreshments of punch, cake, mints and nuts were served from the linen covered table.

Approximately 32 guests called or sent gifts.

Betrothal Announced

MISS WANDA JEAN EDWARDS

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Edwards of Canyon are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Wanda Jean, to Alton Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wallace of Crosbyton. Nuptial vows are to be solemnized in the First Baptist Church of Canyon on August 3.

Dr. Anderson Entertains Kappa Gamma at Supper

On Thursday evening, Dr. Hattie M. Anderson honored members of Delta Kappa Gamma who are attending West Texas State College with a lawn supper at her home. This occasion has become one of the most pleasantly anticipated events of the summer for members of the organization, for Dr. Anderson has entertained the group each year for a long time.

This year the delicious food and the fellowship had an added attraction, for Miss Edna Graham who has just arrived home from a tour of northwestern Europe, gave a lively account of incidents of her trip. The guests enjoyed hearing about a royal wedding which she attended in one of the Scandinavian countries. Princess Margaret of England was also a guest and stood within a few feet of Miss Graham. The wedding took place in a small village church, and little girls of the Sunday School, carrying great bouquets of sweetpeas, formed an aisle through which the bridal party marched up to the church door.

Those who enjoyed Dr. Anderson's hospitality included Mrs. H. R. Railsback, Mrs. Ruth Burtz Shewbert, and Mrs. Oree Carson of Dalhart; Miss Betty Virginia Johnson of Ruston, La.; Miss Anna Elliott of Stratford; Mrs. Anthony Cuff, Sayre, Okla.; Mrs. Vesta Mae Smith, Paducah; Mrs. Vera Hill, Mrs. J. A. Hill, Miss Sarah Thompson, Miss Mae Simmons, Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Mrs. Tom Knighton, Miss Graham, Mrs. Nancy McCaslin, Mrs. John Davis, Miss Elva Fronabarger, Miss Darthula Walker, Mrs. E. D. Harrell, Dr. Ima Barlow, and Mrs. Alma Perkins of Canyon.

Nuptial Plans Are Revealed At Tea

On Sunday afternoon, June 14, Mrs. Ross Craig entertained with a tea for the high school and college girl friends of her daughter, Betty Ross, to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of Betty Ross to Duane Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Howard of Amarillo.

Mrs. Craig, Betty Ross, and Mrs. Howard of Amarillo received the guests. Miss Annette Pond secured the names for the guest book.

Presiding at the crystal and silver appointed table were Mrs. Albert Craig and Miss Teddie Howell. Centering the linen laid table was an unusual centerpiece of pale pink asters surrounding cupids shooting golden arrows bearing the names Betty and Duane to one side of the table and the date, July 13, to the other side. The entire arrangement was highlighted with matching pale pink angel feathers.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Kenneth Loyd of Pampa, Mrs. Sue Wook of Amarillo, and Mrs. Max Bellah of Austin.

Members of the house party were Mesdames Kermit Pond, John Williams, J. B. Roberts, Stacey Howell, Ray McReynolds, Alfred Bellah, and Mrs. Fowler E. McDaniel of Tulsa. Approximately 65 girls called during the tea hour.

10 Scouts Attend Summer Camp

Scouts James Young, Alan Hanks, Joe Bailey, John Winter, Bobby Hacker, Bobby Joyner, Bill Cornette, Craig Hinger, Mac Boswell, and Buzzie Barnhill left Canyon Sunday afternoon for Camp Don Harrington for a week of summer camp.

Activities for the camp period will be decided by the boys themselves. There will be a swimming program, rifle shooting, pioneering, axe yard work, cooking, handicraft, and many other scout skills available to the boys at the camp.

An entire list of required skills for second and first class scouts will probably be covered. The scouts will sleep in their own tents and they will eat in the big commissary with all the other scouts at camp. An estimated 80 to 100 scouts will be present for this second camp period.

There will be a big campfire at 8 o'clock Friday evening at the camp. It is hoped that all parents of scouts at the camp will attend and that all scouts who are not at camp will attend with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Benham of Montrose, Colo., have visited for the past two weeks with their parents, grandparents, and other relatives: Mrs. Olga Seales, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wiseman, Mr. and Mrs. Les Benham and Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Woolsey and family of Amarillo. Joyce Horn returned home with them for the summer. They left Saturday morning for Pagosa Springs, Colo., to visit his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Helton Benham, before going on to Montrose.

Curly Myers and Earl Lipe have returned from New Mexico, where they spent last week fishing. They report the fishing as fair.
